

Be'er Sheva

History meets innovation

This “City of the Patriarchs” is now a vibrant center for technology and culture. Here Abraham made his covenant with King Abimelech, as told in Genesis 21. He set forth from here. The British Army’s 1917 cavalry charge in Be’er Sheva was the last successful one in history.

Don’t miss the Old Turkish train station. Grab a cup of Bedouin coffee at the bustling shuk. Don’t worry about the toothless guy serving . We hope you like it sweet.
